VAMPIRES

THE SANGUINE

The Sanguine are a trio of vampires that date back to about 460 BC and rule the new Las Vegas. Almost two and a half millenia old, these vampires are the strongest of their kind. Their power is such that they could destroy the city of Las Vegas within minutes. Each of the trio have special gifts and they continue to work on and hone their gifts with each passing year. Even another vampire with similar gifts would find the Sanguine hundreds of times stronger in their abilities because of their age. They rule Las Vegas because people fear and revere them as royalty. Much as those in Britain feared their kings and queens. The Sanguine trio are capable of killing other vampires with a mere thought, especially Lucian, who can ignite their blood. Valerian is a prince, and the Liderc. The Liderc is a special kind of shapeshifting vampire. There is only ever one Liderc at a time, and only among the Sanguine. Lily, while perhaps the most compassionate of the three, is still just as powerful as her brothers. No one messes with them. They are worshiped. Other vampires, and especially lycans and humans, should avoid eye contact, directly speaking to them, mouthing off, being aggressive, etc. A ruler does not tolerate this from their subjects. They expect reverence, humility, deference, submissiveness, prostrating oneself and begging for forgiveness.

SANGUINE CHILDER

The Sanguine Childer (those sired by the Sanguine) are much stronger than other vampires, despite their age, because they were sired by the Sanguine. For example, if a childe of the Sanguine was perhaps only 300 years old, and another vampire of about 500 years tried to take them on, they might do some damage, but the Sanguine childer would come out on top simply because of their parentage. Sanguine Childer also have a cerebral connection to their sires and others in their family.

CABALANS

This group of vampires has devoted their lives to a monastic state, believing they are the wrath of Satan on a sinful world, they are therefore also servants of God. In their faith, they have become hideously ugly as they believe they should be. Their faith also imbeds a deep psychosomatic susceptibility to holy objects and a fear of churches and graveyards. They live below ground, keeping their environment dark and drab. Also known as leeches or ticks.

THE DAVIS PACK

The Davis Pack used to run the city before the Sanguine arrived. They built it up from the devastation it had suffered, got it running electricity again, gave people jobs and hope. But it didn't seem that fate was on their side. Once the Sanguine took over, Skyler was under their employ. He was to control the lycan population. If he could keep them from an uprising or defying the Sanguine laws, they could live in peace with all the pleasures and ammenities the Sanguine themselves enjoyed. Needless to say, most of the lycans aren't pleased to be ruled by vampires.

LYCAN DOMINATION FRONT

While the Davis Pack might be fine with being cowed under Vampire rule, some of the other lycans are not. A secret society called the L.D.F or Lycan Domination Front, has sprung up more than once in Las Vegas. They have plans to take down the Sanguine, even if it means their lives in the process. - Pets- Humans kept by a vampire or a group of vamps for pleasure or workers in the brothel.
- Ghouls- Humans who are fed vampire blood and are under the vampire's control.

CITY HUMANS

- Cattle- These are the humans raised by The Sanguine and those of Las Vegas for food and as a commodity.
- Pets- Humans kept by a vampire or a group of vamps for pleasure or workers in the brothel.
- Ghouls- Humans who are fed vampire blood and are under the vampire's control.
- Servants and Employees- These humans also work for The Sanguine in some capacity within the town.
- Compound Inhabitants- These are followers of the religious movement in the hills outside of Vegas. They believe that God has brought this blight on the Earth as punishment and they must fight the evil in order to earn their way into heaven.
- Stray Humans- On the run from hunting Lycans and gangs of roving vampires. They would do well to offer themselves up as cattle to The Sanguine. Some have banded into tribes to increase their chances of survival.
